Didn't want the day to end without letting each of you know how very much we appreciated y'all being with us for our seventh Vintage Affair, but the first with a focus on Georgia. The food for the evening was absolutely divine and well worth every calorie consumed! I can't even begin to tell you how many compliments we all received on how delicious everything was. I hope that each of you made some good contacts with our guests (all 372 of them!) and that it will generate future business for you.

We are going to be having a "roses & thorns" meeting on Friday to go over what went well and what we need to address for improvement next year. If you have any suggestions or comments, I would greatly appreciate hearing them as I really want this event to be a big win-win for everyone involved.

Thank you again. It was a pleasure meeting those of you I hadn't met before and seeing those whom I do know once again. Looking forward to dining with you in the days to come.

Cheryl
